

Rajbhasha Fortnight Concludes in NCL

NCL Nigahi Area was ranked first in doing official work in Hindi language during the year. The area was awarded Late Shankar Dayal Singh Smriti award in prize distribution cum closing ceremony of Rajbhasha Fortnight on Friday at Officer's Club. NCL Jhingurda Area secured 2nd position. These awards were given to both the coal areas at the closing ceremony of Raj Bhasha Pakkhade at NCL Headquarters on Thursday.

Shri Chanchal Goswami, General Manager, NCL Jayant Area graced the occasion as Chief Guest and JCC Member Shri Ashok Dubey, General Manager NCL Jhingurda, Shri Chittaranjan Singh, General Manager (Personnel)/Chief of Personnel Shri Charles Juster and GM (CWS) Shri R.K.Ambashtha were present as guest of honour at the closing ceremony organized at Officer's Club Singrauli.

Addressing the function, the Chief Guest Shri Goswami said that the specialty of NCL is that Hindi-speaking workers along with those coming from non-Hindi belts both are working well in Hindi. It is a proof that with inspiration and encouragement, we can touch new heights in the field of Hindi awareness. He expressed hope that even after closing of fortnight, the enthusiasm of working in Hindi will continue.

During the fortnight, variety of programs and events were held in company headquarters, areas and units to disseminate the importance of Hindi as official language. With an aim to encourage children to use Hindi, various competition were organized in NCL funded schools. The winners of all these competitions were rewarded at the closing ceremony.

Mr. Charles Juster, General Manager (Chief of Personnel / Personnel) welcomed the guests who attended the ceremony and Mr. A.K. Chaudhry, HOD (Rajbhasha) gave note of thanks. The role of the team of the Rajbhasha Department of the company headquarters in the celebration of the ceremony was commendable.
